This preconference workshop is targeted towards Postgraduate students, young professionals and all those pathologists who sign out musculoskeletal lesions infrequently. The workshop will cover basic aspects and also contemporary subjects so as to equip pathologists with the knowledge set necessary to handle musculoskeletal lesions in today’s practice.

The topics listed below for the workshop will be covered in a case based format and a link to the power point of the cases to be discussed will be sent to those who register for the workshop in advance.

- Bone in health and repair
- Basic Musculoskeletal radiology for pathologists
- Grossing of Bone & soft tissue tumours
- The common Fibro-osseous lesions of bone
- Chondrogenic tumours with emphasis on differentiating Enchondroma from well differentiated chondrosarcoma
- Osteogenic tumours
- Evaluation of chemotherapy response of musculoskeletal tumours
- Ewings and its new siblings
- The ubiquitous Giant cell
- Denosumab’s interesting story
- Broad principles of categorising & Grading Soft tissue sarcomas
- Revisiting well known IHC antibodies of STS
- Newer IHC markers : promises and limitations
- The common Benign and malignant vascular tumours

Prof Dr Nirmala Jambhekar
Ex HOD, Dept Of Pathology
Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai

Pathology -Bharat Rekhi-Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai
Rekha Kumar – Sri Shankara Cancer Hospital, Bangalore
Sanjay Wadhwa – Shrimann Hospita, Jalandhar
Sujit Joshi – Deenanath Mageshkar Hospital, Pune
Usha Kini - St john's medical college hospital, Bangalore
Vinita Pant – Centre of Oncopathology, Mumbai
Suseela Kodandapani – Indo-American Cancer Hospital, Hyderabad
Devamalya Banerjee – Narayana Multispeciality Hospital, Mumbai
Mukta Ramadwar- Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai
Sanjeev Shah – Gene Lab, Ahmedabad

Radiology - Amit Janu, Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai
Surgery - RR Saggar – Shrimann Hospital, Jalandhar

Dr. Suman Byregowda (Organising Secretary) Orthooneco Surgeon, Narayana Health City, Bangalore
www.imsos2020.in | imsos2020@gmail.com